Beautiful Complexions

Come from pure, untainted blood. No complexion can be muddy, mottled or sallow if the blood is pure; no complexion can be clear and healthy if the blood is not pure. More than half of the diseases that afflict the body are caused by impure blood. This is the secret of the success of Celery King. It makes pure blood.

ALARMS

Six Since Saturday.

Sunday Was a Busy Day
For the Department.

College Girls Were Treated to Fire Scare.

Furnace at Masaldwar Insisted on Smoking.

None of the Conflagrations Were of Serious Nature.

Sunday proved a busy day for the Akron fire department.

There were four fires during the morning, and three of them occurred between the hours of 8:40 and 10 o'- clock. Had any of them developed into serious conflagrations, the department would have been greatly handicapped and a large property loss would have resulted.

Fortunately in each instance, the fire was quickly extinguished, and in one or two of the cases, it was scarcely necessary to turn in an alarm.

The first of the three fires was sounded from box 54 at 8:40 o'clock.
The residence of J. P. Loomis, 632 E.
Buchtel ave., had caught fire from a torch, being used in thawing out frozen water pipes. Departments 1 and 2 responded. The fire was extinguished by the use of chemicals. Loss will amount to $100, covered by insurance.

Fifteen minutes later an alarm came in from box 14. Nos. 1 and 4 made the run. A house on Vioris st., owned by James Gilhooley, and occupied by F. C.
Christ and S. Bittner had caught from a defective flue under the roof. Damage slight.

At 10 o'clock an alarm by telephone called department No. 3 to 210 S. Union st. The house is known as "Mas-aldwar" and is occupied by the young ladies of Buchtel College as a dormitory. It is owned by John T. Johnson.
The furnace had failed to act properly and the house was filled with smoke.

The occupants, thrilled with horror at the prospect of another fire to burn them out of home and home, hastily gave the alarm. The young ladies were badly frightened and after the furnace had been properly regulated and the house cleared of smoke, one of them shyly asked Chief Manderbach if he would not allow one of his men to wait an hour to prevent further outbreak of the flames. The request was granted.

At 2:10 o'clock Sunday morning an alarm came in from box 71. A lamp had exploded in Henry Campbell's meat market, at 203 Grant st. The chemical engine soon extinguished the flames. No damage was done except by smoke.

At 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening, a house at the corner of Thornton and Harvard sts., owned by Byron Wise, and occupied by D. F. McKee, caught fire from an overheated stove. Loss will amount to $40. Departments 1 and 4 responded.

To complete the activities of the day, the department was called to box 29, corner Washington st., and Hopp alley, at 8:30 o'clock Sunday evening. It proved to be a false alarm.

BADLY SPLIT.

Cuyahoga County Has Many Candidates.

Judge U. L. Marvin Sends Letters to Delegates—His Claims.

Circuit Judge U. L. Marvin, of Akron, has already started a vigorous campaign with the view of securing a re-nomination at the hands of the next judicial convention, says the Cleveland Leader. He has written letters to all of the delegates to the convention from Cuyahoga county, who were elected at the recent Republican convention. Judge Lamson, of the Common Pleas bench, is again a candidate for the nomination. He was a candidate last year against Circuit Judge Hale, who was nominated and elected. L. H. Winch has been spoken of as a candidate, and it is said that certain ones are backing Miner G.
Norton, ex-Law Director of the city, with the hope of securing his nomination. In all probability there will be other candidates in the field before the convention is held.

Indications now point to a badly split delegation from Cuyahoga county.

The judicial nomination is entering largely into the struggle for the control of the new Republican County Central committee. The supporters of V. A. Taylor for the chairmanship of the new committee are also supporting Judge Lamson. Miner G. Norton is the McKisson candidate, and certain ones of both factions favor the nomination of L. H. Winch.

Each delegate to the judicial convention from Cuyahoga county has received letters from Judge U. L. Marvin, as follows:

"I see that you have been selected as one of the delegates to the convention which is to nominate a candidate to succeed me on the Circuit bench.

"As you know, I am on the last year of my first term, and naturally I desire to succeed myself. Heretofore no member of this bench has failed of a second term, and I am greatly in hopes that the time-honored custom will not be departed from in this instance.

"Each of the other members of the bench is a resident of Cuyahoga county, and it seems that it would be entirely proper that one should be from another county, although the delegation from Cuyahoga county considerably outnumber the aggregate delegation from the other counties.

"Of course, unless I am a suitable man for the place I ought not to be nominated. If I am, it would seem as though my residence in Summit county and the fact that I have had but one term should count in my favor. As I am the only man who was a soldier during the Civil war who has been elected to this bench, I have a feeling that this should also count in my favor."

petizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and grocer for Grain-O.

ROMANTIC.

An Erie Engineer Marries His Childhood Sweetheart.

Isaac Huffman, a well known Erie engineer, and Mrs. Mary E. Weitzel, of Gallon, were quietly married in Bucyrus Saturday morning by the Rev.
M. J. Keyes, of the Methodist Episcopal church.

They were lovers in childhood but became separated and both married.
Mrs. Weitzel was divorced from her husband about ten years ago, and Huffman only a few weeks ago got a divorce from his wife, who is now in California with their two children.
As soon as all legal restraints were removed the arrangements for the wedding were made, but were kept so quiet that not even the immediate relatives knew the exact date.

Protection live will give a dance and social next Tuesday evening in Tip Top hall for the benefit of Buchtel college. Tickets 10c and 15c. Don't miss it.
